I wanna hold hands with you, but that s all I wanna do right now

But the less time that I spend with you, the less you need to heal

Stuck on the bridge between us

Grey areas, and expectations

But I m not the one if we re honest

But I wanna sleep next to you, and I wanna come home to you
I wanna hold hands with you, I wanna be close to you
But I wanna sleep next to you and that s all I wanna do right now
And I wanna come home to you, but home is just a room full of my safest sounds
So come over now and talk me down.
