C | D | Em | Bm |
C | Em | C | G | (Repeat ad infinitum.)

Cause when you didnâ€™t call me up again

I knew everything was wrong

The time was real, I see that now

Never should have done this on my own, could have talked with everyone

But thereâ€™s a room with a view

Have you never been out of yourself?

Cause I never want to run away from you again

Pick up the diamond, put it in your hand

I am digging up my gold for you tonight, melt it down and put it on

I really didnâ€™t know myself at all,

And then you came into my life

You spread the clouds and beamed me up

Underneath your beauty thereâ€™s a brain, itâ€™s a book with all my names

Itâ€™s a dream

Cause I never want to run away from you again

Pick up the diamond, put it in your hand

I am digging up my gold for you tonight, melt it down and put it on
