A D A E
 It s been pouring down rain on my old windshield, would seem like three whole days

A D A E A
 And I ve been thinking about a brand new life, cause this one sure don t pay

A D A E
 Spending too much time on the telephone, just looking for a place to play

A D A E A
 And I m bound to run on a pieces like home, here on this highway

D A E D
 But my mind has gone without me

A E
 To where I lay my burdens down

D A
 And I ll be standing on a rock

D A
 On the banks of the glover river

E
 Closest thing I ve known to solid ground

 Been seeing your face at different types of places in the rearview of my mind

A D A E A
 And sights 20-20 but I can t count how many times that I ve gone blind

E D A E
 Leaves me feeling kind a heavy like all my levy s just about to break

E D A E
