

A Car A Torch A Death
twenty one pilots

One of my favorite songs ever by probably my favorite band. I figured it out on piano then transcribed it to guitar. Please rate and/or comment!

Capo on 3rd

You might want to mute the high e throughout the song, personal preference tho

[Verse]

F C
The air begins to feel a little thin
Am G
As I start the car and then I begin
F C
To add the miles piled up behind me
Am G
I barely feel a smile deep inside me

F C
And I begin to envy the headlights driving south
Am G
I want to crack the door so I can just fall out
F C
But then I remember when you packed my car
Am G
You reached in the back and bucked up your heart
F C Am G
For me to drive away with

[Chorus]

F C Am
I began to understand
G F
Why God died

F C Am G

[2x]

[Verse]

F C
The demon sat there waiting on her porch
Am G
It was a little dark so we held a makeshift torch
F C

And when my car was far out of sight

Am

G

He crept in her room and stayed there for the night

F

And then I felt chills in my bones

C

The breath I saw was not my own

Am

I knew my skin that wrapped my frame

G

Wasn't made to play this game

F

And then I saw Him, torch in hand

C

He laid it out, what he had planned

Am

And then I said, I'll take the grave

G

Please, just send them all my way

[2x]

F C Am G

[Chorus]

F C Am

I began to understand

G

Why God died

F C Am G

[2x]

[Outro]

C

The air begins to feel a little thin

Am

G

As we're waiting for the morning to begin

C

But for now you told me to hold this jar

Am

And when I looked inside, I saw

G

It held your heart

C

Am G

For me to walk away with

C

Am

I began to understand

G

Why God died
