

Johnny Boy
twenty one pilots

Intro 2x: D Em Bm G A

Verso:

D

He stays home home for work this time

Em

He never really told his wife

Bm

G

A

D

Em

He never really told a lie but this time he decides that it s alright.

Bm

G

A

It s alright.

D

Em

No one really knows his mind and no one knows behind his eyes.

Bm

The man deserves a medal

G

A

D

Em

But he s never really won a prize before.

Bm

G

A

He goes to lock the door.

Pré-Refrão:

G Bm A

He is falling

D

F#m

A

G

And though he knows it s not

Bm

A

F#m

A

The world looks down and frowns.

Refrão:

D

Em

Bm

Get up Johnny boy, get up Johnny boy,

G

A

D

Get up cause the world has left you lying on the ground.

Em

Bm

You re my pride and joy, you re my pride and joy.

G

A

D

Em

Get up Johnny boy because we all need you now.

Bm G A

We all need you now.

(D Em Bm G A)

Verso:

D

Someone said where you going

Em

Someone said to you goodbye

Bm

G

A

D

Em

They deflect the disrespect when they say that they blame it on the times

Bm

G

A

They blame it on the time.

D

Em

We all know you re qualified to fix a chair and love your wife

Bm

G

A

D

Em

They all know you re qualified but they lie when they blame it on the times.

Bm

G

A

And we blame it on the times.

Pré-Refrão:

G

Bm

A

He is falling

D

F#m

A

G

And though he knows it s not

Bm

A

F#m

A

The world looks down and frowns.

Refrão:

D

Em

Bm

Get up Johnny boy, get up Johnny boy,

G

A

D

Get up cause the world has left you lying on the ground.

Em

Bm

You re my pride and joy, you re my pride and joy.

G

A

Bm

G

Get up Johnny boy because we all need you now.

D

A

Bb5

We all need you now

Interlúdio:

Bm

G

D

A

Bb5

I will carry all your names and I will carry all your shame

Bm

G

D

A

Bb5

And I will carry all your names and I will carry all your shame

Bm

G

D

A

Bb5

And I will carry all your names and I will carry all your shame

Refrão 2x:

D

Em

Bm

Get up Johnny boy, get up Johnny boy,

G

A

D

Get up cause the world has left you lying on the ground.

Em

Bm

You re my pride and joy, you re my pride and joy.

G

A

D

Get up Johnny boy because we all need you now.