

March To The Sea
twenty one pilots

G C
There s miles of land in front of us
Em
And we re dying with every step we take
D
We re dying with every breath we make
G
And I ll fall in line
C
The stranger s back is all I see
Em
He s only a few feet in front of me
D
And I ll look left and right sometimes
G
But I ll fall in line
C
No one looks up anymore
Em
Cause you might get a rain drop in your eye
D
And heaven forbid they see you cry
G
As we fall in line
C
And about this time of every year
Em
The line will go to the ocean pier
D
And walk right off into the sea
G
And then we fall asleep.

( G C Em D )
( G C Em D )

G C
And as we near the end of land,
Em
And our ocean graves are just beyond the sand.
D G
I ask myself the question, Why... I fall in line?

C
Then out of the corner of my eye
Em
I see a spaceship in the sky

D
and hear a voice inside my head

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me

( G C Em D )

G C
Then the wages of war will start

Em
Inside my head with my counterparts

D
And the emotionless marchers will chant the phrase

G
This line s the only way

C
And then I start down the sand

Em
My eyes are focused on the end of land

D
But again the voice inside my head says

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

C G D
Follow me instead

G C
Take me up, Seal the door

Em
I don t wanna march here anymore

D
I realize that this line is dead

G
So I ll follow you instead

C
So then you put me back in my place

Em

So I might start another day

D

And once again I will be

In a march to the sea
