

Neon Gravestones
twenty one pilots

[Intro] C#m G# B F# A

C#m

What s my problem?

Well, I want you to follow me

G#m

Down to the bottom

Underneath the insane asylum

B

Keep your wits about you while you got em

Cause your wits are first to

F#

Go while you re problem-solvin

And my problem?

A

We glorify those even more when they

C#m

My opinion, our culture can treat a loss like

G#m

It s a win

And right before we turn on them

B

We give em the highest of praise

And hang their banner

F#

From the ceiling

Communicating, further engraving

A

An earlier grave is an optional way, no

C#m

G#m

C#m

What s my problem?

Don t get it twisted

G#m

It s with the people we praise who may have assisted

B

I could use the streams and extra conversations

F#

I could give up, and boost up my reputation

A

I could go out with a bang

They would know my name

They would host and post a celebration

C#m

My opinion will not be lenient

G#m

My opinion, it s real convenient

B

Our words are loud, but now I m talking action

F#

We don t get enough love?

Well, they get a fraction

A

They say, How could he go if he s got everything?

I ll mourn for a kid, but won t cry for a king

B C#m
Neon gravestones try to call
(Neon gravestones try to call)

F#m E
Neon gravestones try to call for my bones
(Neon gravestones try to call)

B
But they won t get them

C#m
No, they won t get them

F#m
They won t get them

E
But they won t get them

B
Don t get me wrong, the rise in awareness

C#m
Is beating a stigma that no longer scares us

F#m
But for sake of discussion, in spirit of fairness

E
Could we give this some room for a new point of view?

B
And could it be true that some could be tempted

C#m
To use this mistake as a form of aggression?

F#m
A form of succession?
A form of a weapon?

E
Thinking I ll teach them

B
Well, I m refusing the lesson

C#m
It won t resonate in our minds

F#m
I m not disrespecting what was left behind

E
Just pleading that it does not get glorified

B
Maybe we swap out what it is that we hold so high

C#m
Find your grandparents or someone of age

F#m
Pay some respects for the path that they paved

E
To life, they were dedicated

B

Now, that should be celebrated
