Trapdoor
twenty one pilots

[Intro:]
F#m C#m A C#m G#

[Verse]
F#m   C#m
He wakes up early today
A   C#m   G#
Throws on a mask that will alter his face
F#m   C#m
Nobody knows his real name
    A   C#m   G#
But now he just uses one he saw on a grave

F#m   C#m   A
He pretends that he s okay
    C#m   G#   F#m
But you should see
       C#m   A   C#m   G#
Him in bed late at night, he s petrified
A   G#   A
Take me out, and finish this waste of a life

[Chorus]
        E   B
Everyone gather around for a show
            C#m   A
Watch as this man disappears as we know
      E   B
Do me a favor and try to ignore
                  B   F#m C#m A C#m G#
As you watch him fall through a blatant trapdoor

[Verse]
F#m   C#m
He thinks that faith might be dead
A   C#m   G#   F#m
Nothing kills a man faster than his own head
          C#m
He used to see dreams at night
    A   C#m   G#   F#m
But now he s just watching the backs of his eyes

      C#m                    A
He pretends that he s okay
    C#m           G#  F#m
But you should see
        C#m            A          C#m     G#
Him in bed late at night, he s petrified
A       G#                             A
Take me out, and finish this waste of a life

[Chorus]
         E                   B
Everyone gather around for a show
            C#m                   A
Watch as this man disappears as we know
        E                 B
Do me a favor and try to ignore
                    B                       F#m C#m A C#m G#
As you watch him fall through a blatant trapdoor

C#m
C#m A E G# x4

A       G#                             A
Take me out, and finish this waste of a life

[Chorus]
         E                   B
Everyone gather around for a show
            C#m                   A
Watch as this man disappears as we know
        E                 B
Do me a favor and try to ignore
                  C#m                        A
When you watch him fall through a bleeding trapdoor
       G#                   E
 Cause nobody knows he s alive
