VERSE:

Em	Esus4	C/G	G
Well help me,	I need nicotine and patience
C/G	G	Esus4	Em
and some sort of salvation from a savior I cant find
Em	Esus4	C/G	G
Cause we all, grow up to be our fathers
C/G	G	Dsus2	D
marrying the daughters of the men we once despised

BREAK:

Em Esus4 C/G G C/G G Esus4 Em

VERSE:

Well these small town, kids are always running but they cant help from becoming the very thing they fear the most
And these tattooed girls, though its such a perfect cover
but they make such lousy lovers I have found, I have found

CHORUS:

G G C/G C/G Em Dsus2 C/G Cmaj7/G

This American static so automatic five four three two one

G G C/G C/G Em Dsus2 C/G Cmaj7/G
It all seems to only make me more lonely five four three two one

BREAK:

C/G C/G Em Esus4 C/G G C/G G Esus4 Em

VERSE:

Now these late nights, quouting Kerouac and Wilde
we just use them to revile those who remind us of ourselves
So call me, when your partys over and
Sunday mornings sober has us down has us down

CHORUS (w/o instruments):

This American static so automatic five four three two one
It all seems to only make me more lonely five four three two one

(w/ instruments):

G G C/G C/G Em Dsus2 C/G Cmaj7/G
This American static so automatic five four three two one

G G C/G C/G Em Dsus2 C/G Cmaj7/G
It all seems to only make me more lonely five four three two one

Em Dsus2 C/G Cmaj7/G Cmaj7/G
Five four three two one
