[Chris Richardson]

Just to see her (see her)

But sheâ€™s far far away

And Iâ€™d do anything just to see her face

But sheâ€™s far far away

Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again

Sittinâ€™ on a plane

Reminscing back when I made that mistake

I wish it never ended with a heartbreak

Now your heart broken, tears in ya face

Ask myself why, looking at the sky

If I could turn back Iâ€™d make it all right

Praying that you better but its still stormy weather

Donâ€™t wanna let go but the rain wont let up

Now you gone, still thinking bout you everyday

And I know feelings was hurt and you can blame me but

Iâ€™m sorry for the games that I played

But now itâ€™s too late

And now sheâ€™sâ€¦

Now sheâ€™s far far away

And Iâ€™d do anything just to see her face

But sheâ€™s far far away

Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again

Itâ€™s cold putting up a fight

Arguing back and forth through the night

Regardless what I said and I donâ€™t most of it

You know I really love you, this the realest goinâ€™ get

It take time to realise what you really wanna know

You was ready for it all but your feelings I ignored

I know my fault, I shouldâ€™ve gave more

Now youâ€™re miles away and Iâ€™m miles on tour

Now itâ€™s drums playing, crowd singing

Light changing, wish you was here to witness all that
It starts fading
They say two wrongs donâ€™t make it right
And I was wrong and now it aint right

Cause sheâ€™s far far away
And Iâ€™d do anything just to see her face
But sheâ€™s far far away
Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again

[Tyga - bridge]

Na na na nah
If I could turn back
If I could make it right
Iâ€™d do just that
If I could make it right
Iâ€™d do it all tonight
Hold you in my arms, with you Iâ€™d spend my life

Na na na nah
If I could turn back
If I could make it right
Iâ€™d do just that
Iâ€™d do just that
If I could turn back

(Come back here again)

Cause sheâ€™s far far away
And Iâ€™d do anything just to see her face
But sheâ€™s far far away
Walk a thousand miles just to see her smile again

[Bridge]
