BLOODY MARY
(Tyla)

Am D G (x2)
Am D G G/F# Em C D G

She was raised in the sport of kings
She had the luxury of life, she had everything
She smiled like a child free and wild
She piled her promises higher and higher

Bloody Mary, marry me
I m half the man that I used to be
Bloody Mary, marry me

She sat in the mall with her arms wrapped round her new pal
He beat like a heart then destroyed himself
Four lay dead while your mother was crying instead
Bloody Mary, marry me

Bloody Mary, marry me
I m half the man that I used to be
Bloody Mary, marry me
Bloody Mary, marry me

Bloody Mary, marry me
I m half the man that I used to be
Bloody Mary, marry me
Bloody Mary, marry me

Bloody Mary, marry me
I m half the man that I used to be
Bloody Mary, marry me
Bloody Mary, marry me
