IF ONLY

(Tyla)

Am F C G x2

Am F I woke at dawn, sleep in my eyes
C I saw the scratches in the sky
G I saw the sun had kissed the moon
Am I saw the world then I saw you
F C Before the rumble of the day came into view
G Am I sat and thought of my dreams, I sat and thought of life and you
F C I felt the structure of the day in the distance was a sound
G F At first I thought it was the sea but then I realised

C G Am If only there was you, if only there was me
F How simple life would be
C G No more liars, no more cheats
Am F No more plagiarising thieves cashing in on hollow lives

Am F C G

Am F No more anger in the soul
C Imitation rock n roll
G Nothing is new, only forgotten
Am F No more heroes, they re all dead
C No more bullets in the head
G F No more children asking why did my daddy have to die

If only there was you, if only there was me
How simple life would be
No more liars, no more cheats
No more plagiarising thieves cashing in on hollow lives

Am F
No more executive decisions to be made
C
No more fat cats they've had their day

The expense accounts like the limos and the big house, they've all
G
gone

Am C
If only there was you, if only there was me
G F
How simple life would be

C G Am F (until the end)
