I never knew what they meant, when they said they're free falling while standing still.

C G C
F
I was confused when they said they feel drunk when they're sober, I was without a clue.

C G C F
They claimed the world had froze for a second, but I know that's impossible.

C G C F
To lose your mind but still feel fine, I didn't know til I met you.

C G C F
Cause you crushed me, kept me, held so gently.

C G C F
And of course it's gonna hurt when you take it away.

C G C F
It's cool, I'm fine, I'll be alright.

C G C F
But I promise you one thing, you'll miss me someday.

C G C F
Between you and me, we were perfect, we were breathless, we seemed worth it.

C G C F
Between you and me, I was happy, you were contagious, catch you laughing and you

C G C F
crushed me, kept me, held so gently.

C G C F
And of course it's gonna hurt when you take it away.

C G C F
It's cool, I'm fine, I'll be alright.

C G C F
But I promise you one thing, oh baby, you'll miss me someday.

C G
Sometimes I like to pretend that you're holding me in your arms again.

C F
Thinking about the good times we've been through, I'll be the first to say I miss you.

C G C F
But here's the thing I say in all honesty, I don't want leaving me to be anywhere near easy.

C G C F
But you crushed me, kept me, held so gently.

C G C F
And of course it s gonna hurt when you take it away.

C G C F
It s cool, I m fine, I ll be alright.

C G C F
But I promise you one thing, oh baby you ll miss me someday.

C G C F
You ll miss me someday.

C G C F
Crushed me, Kept me, Held so gently.

C G C F
It s cool, I m fine, I ll be alright.

C G C F
Yeah I ll be alright.
