

Coming Down
Tyler Childers

[Intro]

G

(hammer on string 4 fret 2 listen for rythm) Repeats throughout the song on most G chords in some fashion,
Where it sounds like a C right after a G chord is just this hammer on

[Verse 1]

G

Don t you wish that you could go back sometimes

G D Em

Don t you wish that you could go back home

D Am

Tryin to remember just where it was

C D

Remember you ain t alone

Am G

Remember you ain t alone

[Verse 2]

G

Every day s another pointless job

D Em

And every night s another lonesome song

D Am C

Tryin to remember when your bed wasn t leather

C D

And you were the one singin along

Am G

Lord, where did we go wrong

C G

[Chorus]

C G

Now the sky is coming down

D D7 G G/F

Can t you see the stars fallin

C D C G

Have yourself another round

D C

Til you can t hear the darkness callin

G D C

Til you can t hear the darkness call you

[Verse 3]

G

There was a good man in the makin once

C G D Em

In the light of yesterday

D Am7

Tryin to remember just who he was

C D

Tryin like hell to recall his name

Am G

Well it used to be my name

[Chorus]

C G

Now the sky is coming down

D D7 G G/F

Can t you see the stars fallin

C D C G

Have yourself another round

D C

Til you can t hear the darkness callin

G D C

Til you can t hear the darkness call you