Intro: A F#m D E

A F#m D E
Out on a limb just like a climb for the tight rope walker
A F#m D E
I tried to pull you in, alarms went off like a house on fire
F#m E
Where did you go?
D E
I always thought you were the girl most likely to
F#m E D E
Oh I didnt know that your quiet smile was a stone cold
D
Cry for help
F#m E
All you ever wanted was someone to meet you in the middle

A F#m D E

A F#m
Pearls in the dust
D E
Broken glass from your perfume bottle
A F#m D E
Pieces of you like a faded picture inside a locket
F#m E
Where did you go?
D E
Where did those reckless angels take you to?
F#m E D E
I ll never know how I missed the train back home
D
Back home to you
F#m E
All you ever wanted was someone to meet you in the middle
D F#m E
Someone to love you just a little

A F#m
Rain on the glass
D E
Even the clouds are crying for you
A F#m D E
November Blue, the lonely trees are dying for you

F#m E

Where did you go ?

D E

If I m forgiven won t you send a sign

F#m E D F#m

Well Ill never know how I could stand so close

E

And be so blind

D F#m E

All you ever wanted was someone to meet you in the middle

D F#m E

Someone to love you just a little

A...

Well I ll meet you in the middle
