When I Say That I Love You

Capo 3

C

When I say that I love you,

G

Am

G

I guess what I mean is that I love you like a home I have to leave

F

C

And I'm thinkin how nothing can stay

F

How the sun stains the curtains

C

G

And the paint flakes away

F

C

G

But it'll always be home, till the memory fades

F

C

I love you, thanks for the golden age

C

When I say that I'm grateful

G

Am

G

I guess what I mean is how the sapling is grateful for the seed

C

And I'm thinking how all things change

F

How the branches grow tall

C

G

But our initials remain

F

C

G

I'll remember you well when the summer is gone

F

G

C

Another year another ring round my bones

C

When I say that I'll miss you

G

Am

G

I guess what I mean is that I'll miss you like autumn misses spring

F

C

And I've been thinking how everything dies

F

C

G

Like the reds and the blues on their way cross the sky

F

C

G

And the sunset explodes when it knows that it s time

F

C

Before hello, sometimes goodbye

Kiss me once more

Then leave me forever

I know I m too heavy to hold

Grab both my hands

Kiss me like you mean it

And I ll never know you again

When I say that I love you I guess what I mean is

There s a Power that moves everything

And it pushes the river to sea

And it takes all the years and makes regret into peace

you can t die alone, if you are free

You didn t mean to, but thank you for showing me
