Verse 1:

(first part of Verse 1 Palm Muted)

D

Give me a second I,

I need to get my story straight

Bm

My friends are in the bathroom getting higher than the Empire State

G

My lover she s waiting for me just across the bar

A

My seat s been taken by some sunglasses asking bout a scar, and

D

I know I gave it to you months ago

Bm

I know you re trying to forget

G

But between the drinks and subtle things

A

The holes in my apologies, you know

I m trying hard to take it back

Pre Chorus:

G

A

So if by the time the bar closes

D

A

G

And you feel like falling down

G

A

I ll carry you home

Chorus:

D

Tonight

Bm

We are young

G

So let s set the world on fire

D

A

We can burn brighter than the sun

D

Tonight

Bm

We are young

G

So let s set the world on fire

D

A

We can burn brighter than the sun

Verse 2:

D

Now I know that I m not

All that you got

Bm

I guess that I, I just thought

G

Maybe we could find new ways to fall apart

But our friends are back

A

So let s raise a glas

â€~Cause I found someone to carry me home

Chorus:

D

Tonight

Bm

We are young

G

So let s set the world on fire

D

A

We can burn brighter than the sun

D

Tonight

Bm

We are young

G

So let s set the world on fire

D

A

We can burn brighter than the sun

Bridge:

D

G

Carry me home tonight

D

A

Just carry me home tonight

D

G

Carry me home tonight

D A

Just carry me home tonight

D

The moon is on my side

G

I have no reason to run

D A

So will someone come and carry me home tonight

D

The angels never arrived

G

But I can hear the choir

D A

So will someone come and carry me home
