This is from the Under a Blood Red Sky song book...

From reading the piano music, it looks like the signature guitar riff is something like

|   |       |                                       |                           |
|---|-------|---------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| E | ----  | 4e-4e-2e-2e-4e-4e-2e-2e-----          | 7e+7h-4e-4e-2e-2e-----    |
| B | ----  | 5e-5e-3e-3e-5e-5e-3e-3e-5e-3e-5e----- | 5e-5e-3e-3e-5e-3e-5e----- |
| G | ----- |                                       | 2e+2h-                    |
| D | ----- |                                       |                           |
| E | ----- |                                       |                           |

Where e = eighth note
      h = half note
      + = tie

The chords are

[illegible]

|                    |                         |                               |
