A G A G Cadd9 G

(verse 1)

A G Cadd9 G
in new york freedom looks like too many choices

A G Cadd9
in new york i found a friend
G

to drown out the other voices

A G
voices on the cell phone voices from home
Cadd9

voices through the hard sell

G A
voices down a stairwell in new york

G Cadd9 G
just got a place in new york

(verse 2)

A G Cadd9
in new york summers get hot

G
well into the hundreds

A G Cadd9
you can t walk around the block
G

without a change of clothing

A G
hot as a hair dryer in your face

Cadd9 G A
hot as a handbag and a can of mace in new york

G Cadd9 G
i just got a place in new york

A G Cadd9 G
new york (new york) new york

(verse 3)

A G Cadd9
in new york you can forget

G
forget how to sit still

A G Cadd9
tell yourself you will stay in

G A G
but it s down to alphaville

(chorus 1)

Cadd9 G A G Cadd9 G
new york new york, new york
A G Cadd9 G A
new york, new york
A G Cadd9 G
new york, a-ooo

(verse 4)

A G Cadd9
the irish been coming here for years
G
feel like they own the place
A G Cadd9
they got the airport, city hall, asphalt, dance floor
G
they even got the police
A G
irish, italians, jews and hispanics Cadd9 G A
religious nuts, political fanatics in the stew
G Cadd9
(living) happily not like me and you
G
that s where i lost you

(chorus 2)

A G Cadd9 G
in new york new york, new york
A G Cadd9 G
in new york new york, new york
A G Cadd9 G
new york, a-ooo-oo-oo-ooo
A G Cadd9 G A G Cadd9 G
new york, a-ooo - ooo - ooo-oo-ooo

(verse 5)

A G Cadd9 G
in new york i lost it all to you and your vices
A G Cadd9 G
still i m staying on to figure out my mid-life crisis
A G Cadd9 G A
i hit an iceberg in my life, you know i m still afloat
G Cadd9
you lose your balance, lose your wife
G
in the queue for the lifeboat
A G
you ve got to put the women and children first Cadd9 G
but you ve got an unquenchable thirst for

(chorus 3)

Cadd9 G A G
new york new york
Cadd9 G A G
new york new york, new york

(verse 6)

Cadd9 G
in the stillness of the evening
A G
when the sun has had its day
Cadd9 G
i heard your voice a-whispering
A G
come away now

(chorus 4)

Cadd9 G A G
new new york, new-ooo-ooo Cadd9 G A G A
new york, a-ooo-o-o-ooo
new york
