Morning,

F#m E D5

your toast, your tea and sugar

F#m E B5

Read about the politician s lover

D5

Go through the day like knife through butter

B5

Why don t you?

F#m E B5

You dress

F#m E D5

in the colours of forgiveness

F#m E B5

Your eyes as red as Christmas

D5

B5

Purple robes are folded on the kitchen chair

F#m

E

B5

You re gonna sleep like a baby tonight

F#m

E

B5

In your dreams, everything is alright

F#m

E

B5

Tomorrow dawns like someone else s suicide

D

B5

You re gonna sleep like a baby tonight

F#m E B5

Dreams

F#m E B5

It s a dirty business, dreaming

F#m E B5

Where there is silence and not screaming

D5

B5

Where there s no daylight, there s no healing

F#m

E

B5

You re gonna sleep like a baby tonight

F#m

E

B5

In your dreams, everything is alright

F#m

E

B5

Tomorrow dawns like a suicide

D

B5

But you re gonna sleep like a baby tonight

F#m E B5

Hope

F#m E B5

is where the door is

F#m E B5

When the church is where the war is

D

B5

Where no one can feel no one else s pain
