something about me smells
I don t want that to be, how you remember me
Something about me stinks

if I can only change
I wouldn t be so far, from standing where you are
If I was not so strange

(back to the verse, same as the first)

Every way I look is south
Everywhere I look is south
If I could tune my vision out, I could hear you nice and loud
Everywhere I look is south

Something about me s weak
if I could only tweak myself from the inside out, I could turn my life around if I was not so weak

E		C
Doesn't have to be the only way to common ground
E		C
Absence was an option only waiting to be found
E		C
But the further that I float along, the sooner I could sink
E		C
And in the end it only matters if you feel that you could think of me the same

(4x the last time just hold the B thru the end of the last measure)

(back to the beginning, with these lyrics)

Every way I look is south
everywhere I look is south
If I could tune my vision out, I could hear you nice and loud
Every way I look is south

Something about me stinks
something about me smells
I don t want that to be, how you remember me
Something about me stinks

(here s a riff Jake uses a lot to finish off a verse or whenever)
