[Piano first] : G
[Guitar enters]
                   C
Looking into your eyes, I know the reason why
                D
you say to me, I ll meet you at the side of the road sometime
            D C9
you could never break me, you could never swim against the tide
      D
I find it all a little hard
                   C
Find it all so hard, I find it all so hard
               D
sitting here, and waiting at the side of the road for you D C9
you don t know me, you could never settle down in time
            Em C9 Em C9
       D
I find it all so hard, so hard
            C9
too many people telling us to make a little room
[no guitar - piano plays C9 D]
you could never break me, you could never swim against the tide
I find it all C9
             D C9
you could never break me, you could never settle down in time
                       G
