

Fifty Years

Uncanny X-Men

This classic/daggy Aussie song from the Uncanny Xmen has resonated with me for the last 25 years. This is what I came up with in standard E tuning. Enjoy.

Verse 1

C F G/F
its nearly time we were leaving
C F G/Dm
we ll have one more for the road

Pre-chorus

Dm G
it dont mean nothin x2

Verse 2

C F G/F
so we gather round the table
C F G/Dm
raise our champagne in the air

Dm G
it dont mean nothin x2

Chorus

G F# G C Am
cause weve got, this night together well have hear and now forever
F# G C Am
dont tell me now... you can write me a letter
F# G C
where will we be in 50 years (in 50 years)

Verse 3

so while we re still together
there aint no need to cry it

dont mean nothin x2
chorus

Bridge

Dm G
like to say, say to you like to say,
Dm G
say its true (yeah yeah yeahay) and theres
Dm G C
no one i would rather than you (oh no no),
Dm G
lets talk about it,

C

some day when we re old

it dont mean nothin x2

chorus x2

where will we be in 50 years X4
