

Letter To My Daughters
Uncle Kracker

D intro

D

I m sending this letter

G D

I ll mail it today

D A

There s so many things I ve been wanting to say

D

Your mom sent some pictures

G D

And my how you ve grown

D A D

Rock n roll fathers are never at home

G

I m writing this letter

G

I made you a song

D A

I promised your mom that I d write while I m gone

G

You say daddy come home

G

Well you ll just have to wait

D A D

I hope when I get there that it won t be too late

D

D G A

Skylar I just missed your first step today

D A

I have no excuses and nothing to say

D G D

I live on a bus with a rock n roll band

D A D

I hope when your older that you ll understand

G

I m coming home soon

D

This tour s almost through

D A
I promise I ll try to spend more time with you

G
You say daddy come home

D
You ll just have to wait

D A D
I hope when I get there that it won t be too late

DAD

D G D
Now Madison Blue you know I love you too

D A
Not a single day passes that I don t think of you

D G D
I m running on empty and a mountain so high

D A D
I can pull out your pictures and look in your eyes

G D
I long for the day when your old man comes home

A
It kills me to hear you say daddy don t go

G
You say daddy come home

D
You ll Just have to wait

A D
I hope when I get there that it won t be too late

DAD DAD

D G D
Daddy s at work now he s trying to pay bills

D A
Ego s and assholes are part of my deal

D G D
I make some money and I have some fun

A D
The tax man he cometh and I m back to square one

G
Don t worry bout your daddy

D

You girls be good

D

Give a kiss to your mother

A

I sure wish I could

G

This life has it s moments

D

I m not always sad

D

Take care and I love you

A

D

Your rock n roll dad