INTRO: C E C

(no bass just synth)

Tonight we stand by the door
Waiting for amends
I ve lived all this time for love
Tonight you come
With no suit and no suitcase in your hand
I couldn t wait until the day is done

C E C E
I never thought that I would be the one who could deal with so much waiting
C E C C
I never count but look at me now, I see the time I should be saving
C E C E
O hasty patience help me get around, tell me what I should be taking
C E C E
Cause I ve been setup in a situation where I m terribly mistaken

other: C E C

(no bass just synth again)

Tonight we look into the eyes of the strangers we ve become
With that we lift the weight of time
Tonight we say the words that are due to each other
Can you pretend like you lived one life for my love?

C E C E
Thought I was tough to never care enough about what everybody s sayin
C E C E
Waiting for the world to take you away while I remain in where I m staying
C E C E
O hasty patience help me let it out, don t like the way that I m behaving
C E C E
Thought I was right but look at us now cause we are terribly mistaken
