Cold winds and cloudy skies Turned to sweetness in her eyes Fantasies I realised Came to life to my surprise

Rain came and took her away

Just when I thought she was here to stay

Sun gone I was left high and dry Love came by and touched me And kissed me so long

Shine hard October moon
Eagle take me to her soon
Run swiftly sliver stream
Find my love and let me dream

Half of me is all of her
I would be much }happier if I was whole

All my words and wisdom fall
The poet s justice leads me to my goal
Leads me to my goal
