Cold winds and cloudy skies
Turned to sweetness in her eyes
Fantasies I realised
Came to life to my surprise

Am D
Rain came and took her away

Just when I thought she was here to stay

Sun gone I was left high and dry
Love came by and touched me
And kissed me so long

Shine hard October moon
Eagle take me to her soon
Run swiftly sliver stream
Find my love and let me dream

Half of me is all of her
I would be much }happier if I was whole

All my words and wisdom fall
The poet s justice leads me to my goal lLeads me to my goal

Am E

Cold winds and cloudy skies
Turned to sweetness in her eyes
Fantasies I realised
Came to life to my surprise
