Intro: F# A E C7 x6

Still playing games with the hourly wagers feeling left out
C7 F# A E
Could you not see the consequences of treading in your doubt
C7 F# A E
Hope is always the antidote and I m feeling what I can
C7 F# A E
Could you not see the obviousness in acting like a man
C7 F# A E
Fear is always the catalyst Sending shivers through my heart
C7 F# A E
And I can t stop it from happening When I m falling apart
C7 F# A E
I can t stop it from happening When my hope light goes out
C7 F# A E
Love is always the aperture When my hope light goes out
C7
The truth is

F# A E
When the snake sits on the right
C7 F# A E
The truth is always the anti-venom the snake sits on the left
C7 F# A E
The truth is always the anti-venom the snake sits on the right
C7 F# A E
The truth is always the anti-venom the snake sits on the left

C7 F# A E
I m laying blame like a cowardly lion Stuck in what was then
C7 F# A E
Could you not feel the enviousness corrode an alloy s end?
C7 F# A E
Guilt is always the histamine And I m scratching at the door
C7 F# A E
Could you not feel the urgency And insist there s something more
C7 F# A E

Love is always the catalyst You make music in my heart
