

Damini

USS (Ubiquitous Synergy Seeker)

Great song!!! This is a love song inspired by the Damini the elephant, who died of a broken heart...check out the story. Ash plays this a half step down in Drop D for the studio version, although, there are some live videos of them playing it in Drop C. As I play mainly acoustic I ve tabbed it in half step down without the Drop D...all chords related to that. I ve included the chord codes for Drop D at the end if you would prefer that.
