

Ottoman

Vampire Weekend

Since the first version isn't complete I figured I'd make one.

Enjoy

Intro: B C#m A E 4x

B C#m A E
Ottoman couch, how handsome your furniture
Lovelier now, but dressed for a funeral
Begging you to sit for a portrait on the wall
To hang in the dark of some parliamentary hall

B C#m A E
Elegant clothes, you want to be seen with her
Under your tweeds you sweat like a teenager
Begging you to sit for a portrait on the wall
To hang in the dark of some parliamentary hall

B E A B
Today is for you
E A
They laid it out for you
B
For you
E A B
There will be six bells a-ringing and white women singing for you
E A B
But this feels so unnatural to Peter Gabriel, too

B C#m A E
All of the cards and all of the time it took
Soon it's all lines of red in a leather book
Begging you to wait for a minute by the door
Your creeping feet where they've never been before

B E A B
Today is for you
E A
They laid it out for you
B
For you
E A B
There will be six bells a-ringing and white women singing for you
E A B

But this feels so unnatural to Peter Gabriel, too

B-E-A-B until fade out
