

Stay Frosty
Van Halen

C
I journeyed to the North, to hear what the preacher said
C
He said your arms are too short to box with God,
C
learn these words instead .
C
Gold tooth reflected, my advice is free
C
there s a trick to Christian values, it ends compulsively.

F
(Stay frosty) that s what the preacher man said
C
(Stay frosty) his words still racking in my head
Ab G
Can t control your future, can t control your friends
Ab G
in a world without end
C
(Stay Frosty) ayyy yeah
C
(Stay Frosty now) uh-all right

VERSE 1

C
And I traveled to the South, the ancient Rabbi appeared to me
C
voice heavy with the sands of time, he made me see.
C
Same as Kabbalah Day but for you it s free
C
God guides us on our journey, but careful with those feet!

F
(Stay frosty) In a world without end
C

(Stay frosty) Like the ancient immortals said.

Ab

G

Don t want em to get your goat don t show em where its hid

Ab

C

and that s just what I did.

C

I journeyed to the East, and I struggled to stay afloat

C

a solitary Buddhist monk, threw me a rope.

C

Looked me in the eye and said don t make me say this twice

C

you want to be a monk, you got to cook a lot of rice.

F

(Stay frosty) in a world without end

C

(Stay frosty) work hard at this my friends.

Ab

G

Look beyond that Kung Fu fighting

Ab

G

God is love, but get it in writing.

GUITAR SOLO

VERSE 3 (breakdown)

C

Wandered out West, to the California coast

C

where the folks who know about frostiness, stay frostiest the most.

C

My brand new landlord proposed me a toast,

C

my West Coast host.

F

(Stay Frosty) chant it like a mantra

C

(Stay Frosty) and there s nothing you cant handle

Ab G

Far and wide, far as you can ramble

Ab G

trust in Allah, but tie up your camel.

C

Stay Frosty!!
