Redwood Tree
Van Morrison
[Intro]
 Bm F#m G F#m G A D
[Verse 1]
D A G# G
Boy and his dog
Went out looking for the rainbow
      F#m
            Em F#m
You know what did they learn
Since that very day
D A G# G
Walking by the river
And running like a blue streak
      F#m Em F#m G
Through the fields of streams and meadows
Laughing all the way
[Chorus 1]
D A G# G
Oh redwood tree
Please let us under
    F#m
                        Em F#m G
When we were young we used to go
Under the redwood tree
        A G# G
And it smells like rain
Maybe even thunder
    F#m
                    Em F#m G
Won t you keep us from all harm
      D
Wonderful redwood tree
[Verse 2]
    A G# G
And a boy and his father
Went out, went out looking for the lost dog
```

Bm F#m Em F#m G You know what oh haven t they learned A Since they did that together D A G# G They did not bring him back He already had departed F#m Em F#m But look at everything they have learned Α Since that, since that very day [Chorus 2] D A G# G Oh redwood tree Please let us under F#m Em F#m G When we were young we used to go Under the redwood tree D A G# G And it smells like rain Maybe even thunder Em F#m G Won t you keep us from all harm
