

I Dont Want To Be A Bride
Vanessa Carlton

C Am
I like your company, got a new philosophy
F G
Never knew such a gentleman
C Am
And you can take me on a cheap vacation
F
I don t want to have expectations
G
Cause you could be the end of me

Am F
And I don t need a house on a hill, a swing on a tree
G C
A grandfather clock, porcelain for tea
Am F
A garden with rose and jasmine
G
I wanna get drunk on a bottle of wine
F
No better way to pass the time
Am F
Forever by your side

C
But I don t want to be a bride
Am
Apologies to your mother
F G
But I could be your girl and share this life with you
C
But I don t want to wear white
Am
You know it s too late for that
F
Can we keep the ever after?
G
Oh, could it be?

C
Don t need no golden ring
Am
It d be no match for the love you d bring
F G
From London to Tennessee
C
And we could catch a train to another life

Am

On a whim under the moonlight

F

G

I promise you, will you promise me?

F

Our last names on a wooden sign

G

Arm in arm where the river starts to wind

Am

F

Forever by your side

C

But I don't want to be a bride

Am

Apologies to each other

F

G

But I could be your girl and share this life with you

C

But I don't want to wear white

Am

You know it's too late for that

F

Can we keep the ever after?

G

Oh, could it be?

Em

Just you and me

G

Ah, ah, ah

C

F

G

We will live like kings under lavender skies, skies

C

F

G

We will live like kings under lavender skies, skies

C

We will built a poem we kept a rhyme

Am

Wrapped our love in golden twine

F

G

We wrote, we wrote a legacy

Just you and me

C

F

G

Just like kings under lavender skies, skies

Am (let fade)

We will
