Intro&verso

C#m7/E E7M

Get on the turkish line You ve never written a diamond under my door I m through this door

Sometimes it closes my eyes Sometimes it comes on time Some lies were hidden

The sun shines in the son s heart

Then flows the hat, then grows the red carpet

I wasn t ready to be loved by you

Almost a year ago, dreamin alive Pushing those pills around I was dead, I was dead

Climbing that road

A9 F#7/E

My grave is there
My eyes are swamp again

Wasn t ready to be loved by you.
