[Verso 1]
Dm
                                       Em Dm G
I d like to walk around in your mind someday
I d like to walk all over the things you say to me
                                C
                                    Em
                                         Dm G
I d like to run and jump on your solitude
Dm
                          C
                               Εm
I d like to rearrange your latitude to me
[Ponte 1]

                                                        G
                                      C
You say you just want peace and you d never hurt anyone
You see the end before the beginning has ever begun
[Verso 2]
                                  Em Dm G
I would disturb your easy tranquility
                             C
I d turn away the sad impossibility of your smile
(Dm G C Em Dm

                                                  Em G
I d sit there in the sun of the things I like about you
                                  C
I d sing my songs and find out just what they mean to you
[Verso 3]
But most of all I d like you to be unaware
And I d just wander away trailing palm leaves behind me, so you
