 MY BABY SINGS THE BLUES *****

written by Max D. Barnes and Patsy Barnes performed by Vern Gosdin.

Capo on the 4th fret.

Verse 1:

A

She could dance and she could sing

She left Texas with her dreams

E

She swore that she could make it on her own

Verse 2:

E

She was young and she was fine

She had looks and she had time

A

And the feelings of a woman fully grown

Verse 3:

She hit Nashville like a storm

As soft as she was warm

D

Knowin she d be discovered any day

Verse 4:

D

But the things she did the best

A

Was her overnight success

And the singing just got lost along the way

Chorus:

D A
Baby sings the blues down on Broadway
E A
Singing from bottom of her heart
D A
Baby sings the blues down on Broadway
E A
Then cries herself to sleep there in the dark

Verse 5:

A
From a blessing to a curse

Things just went from bad to worse
E
Life at night worked out the way she planned

Verse 6:

E
And although her dreams were gone

She just couldn't go back home
A
To a town she knew that would not understand

Chorus(x2).
