 MY BABY SINGS THE BLUES *****

written by Max D. Barnes and Patsy Barnes performed by Vern Gosdin.

Capo on the 4th fret.

Verse 1:

A

She could dance and she could sing
She left Texas with her dreams
She swore that she could make it on her own

E

Verse 2:

E

She was young and she was fine
She had looks and she had time
And the feelings of a woman fully grown

Verse 3:

She hit Nashville like a storm
As soft as she was warm
Knowin she d be discovered any day

D

Verse 4:

D

But the things she did the best
Was her overnight success

And the singing just got lost along the way

Chorus:

D A
Baby sings the blues down on Broadway
E A
Singing from bottom of her heart
D A
Baby sings the blues down on Broadway
E A
Then cries herself to sleep there in the dark

Verse 5:

From a blessing to a curse
Things just went from bad to worse
Life at night worked out the way she planned E

Verse 6:

E
And although her dreams were gone
She just couldn't go back home
To a town she knew that would not understand A

Chorus(x2).
