

Song2You

Victoria Justice

These are the official chords. I learned them by ear and also watched the video which helped. The chords repeat themselves. You can just do G, D, A to 2 counts if you're a beginner. It's still the same but the chords that I posted are the ones that are played in the song. I suggest listening to the song so you can be familiar with how it sounds. I'm also on youtube (WolfLover2080), I'll be posting the chords there as well with a cover video so that would help you out alot.
