

D

(Now she s taking her time)

G C

She s got nothing to lose

D

(But the first thing she sees)

G C

Is the last thing she d choose

D

(And when the moment arrived)

G C D

She just found she had nothing to say

C

That day

Am

He lies awake in his bed every night devising ways to conceal the strain

G

Am

She never tells of her midnight fears or admits that she does the same

G

C

D

They never meet, never touch, never speak and for one tired old refrain

G C D

Can you hear me now

C G

Lying in this bed

Em G Em C

Embedded in this written story

G C D

Can you hear me now

C G

Calling from this bed

Em G

I m spitting words

but there s no meaning
