

One More Last Chance
Vince Gill

[Intro]

D

[Verse 1]

D

She was standing at the front door

G

D

when I came home last night

the Good Book in her left hand and a

A

rollin pin in her right

D

she said you ve come home for the last time

G

D

with whiskey on your breath

if you don t listen to my preachin boy

A

D

I m gonna have to beat you half to death

[Chorus]

D

gimme just one more last chance

G

D

before you say we re through

I know I drive you crazy baby

A

it s the best that I can do

D

we re just some good ole boys a makin noise

G

D

I ain t running round on you

G

D

gimme just one more last chance

A

D

before you say we re through

[Verse 2]

(same as verse 1)

At first she hid my glasses

because she knows that I can t see she said you ain t goin nowhere boy until you spend a little time with me

then the boys called from the honky tonk said there s a party goin on down here well she might a took my car keys
but she forgot about my old John Deere

[Chorus]

D
gimme just one more last chance
G D
before you say we re through

I know I drive you crazy baby
A
it s the best that I can do
D
we re just some good ole boys a makin noise
G D
I ain t running round on you
G D
gimme just one more last chance
A D
before you say we re through

[Solo]
[over chorus]

[Chorus]

D gimme just one more last chance
G D
before you say we re through

I know I drive you crazy baby
A
it s the best that I can do
D
we re just some good ole boys a makin noise
G D
I ain t running round on you
G D
gimme just one more last chance
A D
before you say we re through