lyrics:

This tea s too strong for me
 As I await yoir company
 I had too much sun today
 Ocean waters wash away
 Nothing but the present
 Presenting its presence

This island life
 Separate my right from my wrong

No I am not pagan but my heart has been forsaken
 And the hand of God was on my mind
 It took some time from time to time
 Now in the course I know
 Time itself will go when

(chorus)

You forgot your shoes and I
 I have sent a message but I
 There s so many stars in the sky
 It s the truths that will not lie

There s a young wild native maiden
Running mad and barefoot to the sea until

(chorus)

This island life
Finally separates my right from my wrong

(guitar solo)

This tea s too strong for me
As I await more company
I had too much sun today
Dream of lands lying far away
Pregnant with the present
Presenting its presents

This island life
Separate my right from my wrong
This island life
Will separate my rights from my songs
Separate my right from wrong

(electric sitar outro)
