

Living For The Night
Viper

Intro: (C Dm Gm Bb C4 C) 1x

Between dusk and day. Before the sun rise
The city will begin to live its crimes
Millions if you ask. It happens everywhere
Every little corner has its tale
Windows are the eyes that witness without soul
Watching in the silence what is done
I m a part of this. Violence is my friend
Walking on the line of life and death
Spirits walk the streets. Siren sounds alone
Screaming ou the lyrics of my song
I have no other life. Concrete is my cage
All my desillusions turns to rage

I m Living For The Night. Though we have to fear it
Where life is just a game that you have to win
Living For The Night. When death surrounds you
On and on. All the time it s near
I m longing to be free

He even knows my name. He wants no waste of time
I know that killing is his game and I am the prize
Our footsteps sounds alone. I know he s just behind

I feel the panic in our hearts beating very loud

Dm

I turn my eyes to him. The night is very dark

Bb C

He s got a knife and know cause I saw the blade

Dm

Between the light and shade Between the night and day

Bb C

Between my life and death I only feel the blade
