

Im So Lonesome I Could Cry
Volbeat

Volbeat - I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

A

Hear the lonesome whippoorwill

He sounds too blue to fly

D

A

The midnight train is whining low

E

A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

A

I never seen a night so long

When times goes crawling by

D

A

The moon just went behind a cloud

E

A

To hide it s face and cry

Ref.:

F#

Well maybe the night is cold

B

But together they fade

E

Like the shadow that ran up to the hills

A

Trying to fix her wings

F#

There s a saint and a sinner

B

And forever the missing day

E

Where the winners and the losers feel the same

A

Who knows what tomorrow brings

A

Did you ever see a robin weep

When leaves begin to die

D

A

That means he s lost the will to live

E A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

A

The silence of a falling star

Lights a purple sky

D A

And so I wonder where you are

E A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

Ref.:

F#

Well maybe the night is cold

B

But together they fade

E

Like the shadow that ran up to the hills

A

Trying to fix her wings

F#

There s a saint and a sinner

B

And forever the missing day

E

Where the winners and the losers feel the same

A

Who knows what tomorrow brings

A

Hear the lonesome whippoorwill

He sounds too blue to fly

D A

The midnight train is whining low

E A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

E A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

E A

I m So Lonesome I Could Cry

by Dobermann