

Light A Way
Volbeat

C

Down by the lake of Mississippi

Dm

A boy was born poor and abandoned

Em

Am

And as he walk you could hear him yearning

Dm G

For a home and he prays

And by the fields he sang for rising

Dm

All for his faith and memorizing

Em

All of the songs his mother learned

Dm

G

From the lord himself

Chorus:

F

C G

Heaven light a way for a fallen

C

Let me ease the pain from my mother

Dm

G

But he feels the deception in his head

Another day was born and rising

Dm

And on the stool the boy was trying

Em

Am

To earn a coin for his mother, and hoping

Dm

G

That freedom will lead her away

Dear little friend

I ve heard your story

Dm

Please take my hand and I ll promise

Em

Am

We ll find a way and we ll be fighting

Dm

G

For your mother, and her wings

Heaven light a way for a fallen
Let me ease the pain from my mother
But he feels the deception in his head

F C C G
Heaven light a way for another

F C C G
Let me ease the pain for a fallen

F C Am G
We are on our way so much stronger

F C
Heaven light the way for another

Dm G
And he feels no deception in his head
