[Intro]

F G Am C x2

[Verse 1]

F G Am C
I want to drive off every night to the sea
F G Am C
And my body s tired from wasting all these years caught up in the scene
F G Am C
This city breaths exhaust and bleeds from concrete veins
F G Am C
And with every new high rise another tombstone of forgotten graves

[Bridge]

F G
That s why I need you here
Am C
That s why I need you
F G
That s why I need you here
Am C
That s why I need you

[Verse 2]

F G Am C
And you my son will rise-up in the morning
F G Am C
Call out the man who sold his soul for oil and blood for gasoline
F G Am C
And then I ll kiss your tired eyes before I go back to my corporate view
F G Am C
And from nine to five I ll watch the oceans swell, and I ll think of you

[Chorus]

F G
Cause when I come home I know you ll free me
Am C
When I come home I know I m found
F G
In your eyes are open water
Am C
In the depths, I ll dive and drown
F G

Cause when I come home I know you ll free me

Am C

When I come home I know I m found

F G

In your eyes are open water

Am C

In the depths, I ll dive and drown

F G

Cause when I come home I know you ll free me

Am C

When I come home I know I m found

F G

In your eyes are open water

Am C

In the depths, I ll dive and drown

F G

Cause when I come home I know you ll free me

Am C

When I come home I know I m found

F G

In your eyes are open water

Am C

In the depths, I ll dive and drown
