

A Battle Won
Wade Bowen

G

I drink coffee in the kitchen

Cadd9 G

As she slams the bedroom door

Cadd9 G

She had enough of me

D

And she sure did let me know

Cadd9 G

Oh the silence spoke out loud and clear

D Em

Heard a tear hit the floor from here

Cadd9 G D

Oh I can sure feel my stubborn ways

chorus:

C G

Oh the things I do to prove I m right

D Em

Break her heart just to watch her cry

Cadd9 G D

Leave her stranded on an island all alone

C G

I cant stand it when I m wrong

D Em

Being right aint worth the cost

Cadd9 D G

Because sometimes a battle won is a battle lost

G

You always tell me that you love me

Cadd9 G

With conviction in your eyes

Cadd9 G

You re my best friend, my biggest fan

D

You were always on my side

Cadd9 G

And the more I sit here all alone

D Em7

The more this sad disgrace runs through my bones

Cadd9 G D

It cuts just deep enough to realize

chorus

Em

G

Well nobody in the world really wants to lose

Cadd9

G

Yeah but whats the point admitting

Em

D

If I can t win with you
