Same Problem Drop D Capo 3

I have arranged this version to be half plucked (verse) and half strummed (chorus and bridge). On verses, the following chords should be all plucked (sort of pluck and then tap the strings...I hope you know what Iâ€™m talking about). I have the different versions of chords written out:

Chords for first verse (pluck all not xâ€™med) 2nd, 3rd Verse (change Em & D)

	Bbm	C#	Fm	Eb		Fm	Eb
e	-----x-----0-----3-----2-----					---3-----2-----
B	-----1-----1-----0-----3-----					---0-----3-----
G	-----2-----0-----0-----2-----					---0-----2-----
D	-----2-----2-----2-----0-----					---x-----x-----
A	-----0-----x-----x-----x-----					---x-----x-----
D	-----x-----x-----x-----x-----					---2-----0-----

Chords for Chorus (strummed)

	C#add9	G#	Fm	Eb
e	-----3-----3-----2-----2-----
B	-----3----- (3) -----2-----3-----
D	-----2-----0-----0-----0-----
A	-----3-----5-----0-----0-----
D	-----x-----5-----0-----0-----

Chords are arranged for Drop D tuning and to build the song. If you donâ€™t like my arrangement, you can play normal chords with capo3, standard tuning.
