

Our Lady Of The Avenue
Walt Wilkins

Walt Wilkins is a singer/songwriter from the Texas Hill Country (who s also done some time in Nashville)--one of the unsung (pun intended) great songwriters, in my opinion! This is one of my favorites of his.

Intro: Asus2 Asus4 A

E Asus2 Asus4 A

We come from the valleys, we come from the fields

E Asus2 Asus4 A

We start rolling in here just after three

Bm E

We approach as to an altar

Bm E Asus2 Asus4 A

With daily needs and gifts to offer our lady of the avenue

She brings salvation one glass at a time
Her congregation is slowly sanctified
We still believe in Jesus
But she s the one who heals us, our lady of the avenue

Dsus2 A

Of all the treasures in heaven, how could they let this one disappear?

Dsus2 E

With the whole wide world to travel, how the hell did she wind up here?

Asus2 Asus4 A

E Asus2 Asus4 A

She graces us each with quiet understanding

E Asus2 Asus4 A

Of the burdens we bear in these lives we ve been handed

Bm E

Fulfilling as she listens

Bm E Asus2 Asus4 A

We re safe in her commission, our lady of the avenue

Dsus2 A

Of all the treasures in heaven, how could they let this one disappear?

Dsus2 E

With the whole wide world to travel, how the hell did she wind up here?

Asus2 Asus4 A (x2)

E Asus2 Asus4 A

Every night, I tell her that I love her

E Asus2 Asus4 A

She calls me a ride, she won't serve me another

Bm E

But she smiles at my confession

Bm E Asus2 Asus4 A

And that's a fitting benediction from our lady of the avenue

Asus2 Asus4 A

She's our lady of the avenue

Asus2 Asus4 A

Our lady of the avenue

Asus2 Asus4 A (to fade)
