Envelope WARM GUN

All verses are played slowly on the chord C.

C

Where does my heart go,
now Ive been so low?
Indeed, this life has shown me,
things I never wanted to see.

I close my eyes and try to sleep,
the eary morning comes too quick.
I know that I have turned a corner,
where the road leads? Im in wonder.

I dream away of a time of innocence,
when everyting was diffenent.
A time of splendor and joy,
when I was just a boy.

Ch1.

Am Am/F#
The more that you do something,
G G/F# C
the less you ll think of it,
Am Am/F#
and the more you think you know,
B7 Em C Am D7
the less you will be taught. ---Ohh

Open my mind then lose the key,
while I find an inner peace.
But heaven is out of reach,
and hell is too warm for me.

Ch2

Am Am/F#
A million thoughts run though my head
G G/F# C C/B
Of what Ive done and what Ive said
Am Am/F#
Cause somethings never lay to rest
B7 Em C Am D7
For worse or for best. no no no

How does my heart grow,
If I cant let the past go?
In a crowded room Im so alone
Whats love waiting for?
What is love waiting for?
Is there a world outside this envelope?
