Versel.

Em D C
I watch the plane fly away, from the place it left me
Em D C
with a coldness in my heart.
Em D C
This old place dont look familiar to me now,
Em D C
but I suppose it s good to be home.
Em D C
All my ambitions and my dreams left on that jetplane, Em D C/G
back to the place that I belong.

Chorus.

G D C G
Sweet Massachusettes, I want to see it again
D C G
I want to be there again.
D C
but it s hard when you re banished three thousand
miles away.

Verse2.

Dont get me wrong I love the country I come from and my roots I d never want to change.

But it was in the U-S of A that I finally found my way
a steady road I walked on.

All the bills I could not pay, so they sent me away,
and now all I think of is-

Sweet Massachusettes, I want to see her again

I want to feel it again.

but it s hard when you re banished three thousand
miles away.

{Bridge} Am C G
Am D7 G

Verse3.

Now my girl waits for me, hoping someday for my return.

but it seems so far away.

I hate to put her through this pain, to hear her cry on the line

I cannot comfort her of hold her hand.

I cant stand this hell, I might as well be in jail,

if I m not with her.

My soul companion I did meet, when I lived on Bostons streets

I ve got to get back somehow....to

Sweet Massachusettes, I want to hold her again

I ve got to hold her again.

I need to see her again, I want to love her again. ect ect..

but it s hard when you re banished three thousand
miles away.

Sweet Massachusettes, sweet Massachusettes, sweet Massachusettes fade....
